

Merry Christmas!

This 4th Sunday of Advent not only brings us to the conclusion of Advent 2017, but it also brings us to the evening of the solemnity of the Nativity of the Lord.

I just want to take this time to wish each and every one of you a very merry, blessed and happy Christmas.

It is truly an honor and blessing to be able to be here with all of you and to celebrate the birth of an infant that took place so many years ago. This infant has changed the lives of so many, including each one of us.

May you have a blessed and holy Christmas with your family and friends. I look forward to continuing our journey together as we come to deepen our relationship with God and bring His light into our community in 2018!

In Christ's Love,

Fr. James
